

SLIPSTITCH
STUDIO, INC

Welcome to the next evolution of contemporary art galleries!

We believe in creating a space where viewers can deeply engage with and explore the language of artistic expression. Moving beyond traditional white walls filled with artwork, we strive to open new pathways for audiences to experience and connect with art.

Through innovative approaches, we seek to spark dialogue between you and your audience beyond surface-level appreciation. By connecting people from various backgrounds with their unique interpretations of your work, we aim to create an environment rich in creativity, exploration, and discovery.

Who are we looking for

We are passionate about showcasing all forms of artistic self-expression, including painting, dance, spoken word, sculpture, photography, illustration, performance, and more. It is important to us that artists have a clear vision for their work and can express it with confidence. We want to collaborate with professionals at all stages of their careers to create tailored exhibits that showcase unique perspectives within the world of art and engage the next generation of art patrons in meaningful dialogues.

Application process All applicants need to submit via email

- Artist statement (video preferred) submit@slipstitchstudio.com
- Link to portfolio/body of work/project (website or social media)
- CV preferred but not mandatory

Potential applicants Need the following to be considered

- In-person interview (studio visit/place of practice or gallery on-site)
- All applicants will receive a decision via email from us within 3 - 4 weeks of the submission date.
- Potential candidates will be scheduled for an on-site visit for further vetting.
- All other candidates will be notified of our pass on their submission or a potential follow-up at a later date.
- Excluded applicants may request in writing a further explanation of elimination.
