

Description:

Take your practice to the next level with Creative Coaching tailored for mid-career artists. This service focuses on clarifying your vision, breaking through creative or professional plateaus, and strategically advancing your career. Together, we'll refine your practice, strengthen your professional presence, and ensure your work reaches its full potential.

What This Service Offers:

Goal-Oriented Coaching: Define and prioritize career and artistic goals aligned with your mid-career trajectory.

Process & Productivity Optimization: Address creative or logistical obstacles, ensuring sustained momentum and professional growth.

Career Strategy & Positioning: Guidance on exhibitions, grants, residencies, gallery relationships, and professional visibility.

Mindset & Professional Confidence: Build resilience, overcome creative or career-related challenges, and embrace opportunities with clarity.

Actionable Roadmap: A structured plan that balances creative exploration with strategic career development.

What You Will Receive:

A 60–90 minute one-on-one coaching session (Zoom or in-person)

Personalized exercises and strategies to strengthen your creative practice

Customized roadmap aligning your artistic vision with professional opportunities

Follow-up recommendations for continued progress and accountability