

Who This Is For:

Emerging and mid-career artists seeking honest, strategic feedback on their work, a stronger artistic narrative, and actionable steps to advance their careers.

Service:

Individual Portfolio Review

Description:

Elevate your artistic practice with a tailored, one-on-one portfolio review designed to provide actionable insights, strategic guidance, and professional feedback. Whether you're preparing for exhibitions, residencies, grants, or simply seeking to refine your artistic voice, this service offers an in-depth evaluation of your body of work. Each session is personalized to your goals, providing clarity, direction, and strategies for growth in your career as an artist.

What This Service Offers:

Comprehensive Portfolio Evaluation: Detailed review of your selected works, including technical execution, conceptual depth, and overall cohesion.

Professional Feedback: Constructive critique focusing on strengths, areas for improvement, and opportunities to refine your artistic vision.

Strategic Guidance: Insights on presentation, narrative flow, and positioning your work for exhibitions, applications, or online platforms.

Career Development Advice: Recommendations for next steps in your artistic journey, from expanding your network to approaching galleries or collectors.

Customized Action Plan: A clear, personalized roadmap outlining actionable steps to enhance your portfolio, visibility, and professional growth.

What You Will Receive Upon Booking:

A dedicated 60–90 minute one-on-one session (via Zoom or in-person)

A written summary of feedback, including key observations and recommendations

Suggested exercises or strategies to strengthen your portfolio and artistic identity

Guidance on how to present your work effectively for your intended audience